Utah Jazz Announce 2022-23 Regular Season Schedule

Utah to tip-off the season at home vs. Denver on Oct. 19

SALT LAKE CITY (August 17, 2022) – The Utah Jazz announced today the team’s 2022-23 regular season schedule, presented by University of Utah Health. The Jazz will open their 49th NBA campaign at Vivint Arena against the Denver Nuggets on Oct. 19. Utah’s first road game comes two days later on Oct. 21 in Minnesota against the Timberwolves. The regular season will conclude on April 9 on the road against the Los Angeles Lakers.

Utah’s home opener against the Nuggets will mark the seventh time the team has taken on Denver in a season debut, last playing the Nuggets on opening night to start the 2017-18 season.

Other Jazz games of note include the Memphis Grizzlies at Vivint Arena on Oct. 29 and Oct. 31, which leads into a three-game road trip, playing Dallas on Nov. 2, the Los Angeles Lakers on Nov. 4, and Los Angeles Clippers on Nov. 6. Utah hosts the New York Knicks on Nov. 15, with the game scheduled to be broadcast on TNT, and also has visits from the Phoenix Suns on Nov. 18, the Golden State Warriors on Dec. 7, the Philadelphia 76ers on Jan. 14, the Dallas Mavericks on Jan. 28 and Feb. 6, and the Boston Celtics on March 18. The team will play on Martin Luther King Jr. Day at Minnesota on Jan. 16. Utah’s last home game comes on April 8 against Denver.

Single-game tickets for the 2022-23 Utah Jazz regular season and preseason will go on sale to the public on Monday, August 22, beginning at 10 a.m. (MT). Mini-plans will go on sale Monday, August 29. Fans can purchase tickets online at utahjazz.com, or by calling or texting (801) 355-DUNK. Group tickets will be available to the public beginning Sept. 1.

The Jazz will play all Eastern Conference teams twice and Western Conference teams four times apiece, except for four out-of-division Western Conference teams, which it will face only three times. The four teams include the Golden State Warriors (one home, two road), the Houston Rockets (one home, two road), the New Orleans Pelicans (two home, one road), and the Phoenix Suns (two home, one road).

Utah’s month-by-month breakdown includes eight games in October (four home, four road), 16 games in November (six home, 10 road), 15 games in December (eight home, seven road), 13 games in January (eight home, five road), 11 games in February (seven home, four road), 14 games in March (five home, nine road), and five games in April (three home, two road).

Utah’s schedule features 15 back-to-back sets (six road/road, four home/road, three road/home and two home/home). The team’s longest homestand spans six games from Nov. 28 – Dec. 9, with the longest road trip totaling six games from March 3 – 13. The Jazz will have a six-day All-Star Break from February 17-22, with Utah hosting the 72nd NBA All-Star Game at Vivint Arena on Sunday, February 19.
